

2025 Training and Wellness Seminars

You can support your employees with the tools and resources to empower positive change in their lives.

Introduction

When your associates are struggling personally or professionally, it can affect your company's culture and performance. We are here to provide associates and managers with helpful resources, techniques, and support.

Through seminars and trainings, we hope to make it a little easier to reach out and address health, wellness, and work-life balance issues. These offerings tackle everything from substance use and bullying to retirement planning and communication skills. There are also special leadership-focused topics, like managing change, fostering inclusion, and delegating.

To request and schedule a training, or if you do not see a training listed, please contact either Tina Banton at tina.banton@anthem.com or Linda Pace at linda.pace@anthem.com.

Q & A

How and when can I schedule a seminar or training?

You can request a seminar or training by contacting us. We ask for a minimum 15-20-day notice to coordinate your seminar. Let us know which seminar you want to offer, along with where and when you'd like to have it.

How long are the seminars?

Most seminars are 60 minutes long. If more or less time is needed, please let us know.

Where are the seminars held?

Seminars can be delivered on-site, via webinar, or both. Please let us know which format you prefer.

Do I need to have any special equipment to hold an on-site seminar or training?

Yes, you will need to have a computer with Microsoft PowerPoint and the technology to project a slide show. Plan to have the presentation loaded and ready to go on the day of your seminar. If you do not have this technology, you can still schedule a seminar — just let us know.

Can these seminars/webinars be recorded for playback at a later time?

Yes, once a seminar/webinar is recorded, you will receive a file for your use.

How much do the training and wellness seminars cost?

Trainings and wellness seminars are included in your allocated training hours.

Can we cancel a seminar?

Yes, but we ask for a 72-hour cancellation notice.

What happens once the seminar is scheduled?

You will receive an email confirmation, presentation materials, seminar facilitator information, and other training details before the scheduled event.

Will I speak with the facilitator before the seminar? Yes, your seminar facilitator will contact you before the seminar date to introduce him- or herself and discuss any outstanding details. Be sure to tell the facilitator about your culture, the work your employees do, and your goals for the seminar.

Do you have a minimum attendance requirement?

No, but we prefer five or more employees.

Can I receive training survey information?

Yes, please let us know if that is something you are interested in receiving after the event.

What's the best way I can ensure a successful training?

Here are a few steps to help make sure it's a success:

1. Select a topic of interest to your employees.
2. Schedule the event well in advance.
3. Promote your event widely and often.
4. Send a reminder message to your employees.
5. Distribute seminar materials.

COMMUNITY AND GIVING BACK: LEAVING OUR FOOTPRINTS

Fewer things in life give us more joy than helping others. It is a feeling that provides us with purpose and meaning. But the journey to finding and taking part in service can be daunting and intimidating. Sometimes it's easier to find reasons not to do anything than to do something at all. In this training you will learn the mental and physical benefits of service along with tips on how to overcome your fears to help you find purpose and get involved.

CULTURAL MYTHS IN MEDIA: FACT OR FICTION

In our culture, pictures have become tools used to introduce planned emotional reactions in the people who see them. This goes for news/media outlets as well. In today's world of blogs and online media, it is important to learn how to be a critical viewer in order to differentiate what is true and what is fallacy. Participants will learn why these myths matter and how they can greatly impact and construct our views.

DECREASING VIOLENCE ON COLLEGE CAMPUSES

As parents, we want our children to thrive during their college years; to be challenged academically, to enjoy their new surroundings, to make new friends and successfully step into the new, young adult phase of their lives. Understanding the facts about violence on campus, learning how to talk with your young adult about these issues and becoming aware of available resources are important first steps to help protect your children.

DISASTER PREPAREDNESS

When unexpected events, such as hurricanes, occur we sometimes wait for disaster to strike, and in many cases, we have no warning. In all situations, basic knowledge and preparation is the key to survival and recovery. We will talk about people and pets, as well as how you can prepare everything from documents to home protection and what you need to have ready to go so you can prepare with your family.

HOW SAFE ARE YOU?

We live in a world where personal safety is an issue that cannot be ignored. This class covers basic steps we can all take to be safer in our surroundings, including best practices and options for making yourself safer as well as changes we can make in our personal behavior to reduce the risk of becoming a victim.

POWER OF VOLUNTEERING

This class explores why volunteering benefits both individuals and organizations. Physical, intellectual, and emotional benefits of volunteering are discussed in depth. Participants will gain a deeper understanding of both the personal and professional benefits of volunteering.

POLITICAL ANXIETY

By now, nearly all of us have encountered those uncomfortable situations where friends, or even family members, have engaged in a heated political conversation. Our culture has become so divisive lately that many folks are afraid to join their family for the holidays, even virtually, for fear of inadvertently sparking a confrontation over politics. Regardless of our political affiliation, there are ways to avoid this stress. This course offers strategies to acknowledge our anxieties by addressing the areas of our lives that we can control and engage with each other in a respectful way that mitigates political anxiety.

THE TRUTH ABOUT HATE CRIMES

Learning about the history and the definition of the term 'hate crimes' is critical to our understanding of what is happening in our world. In this course, we will discuss the rise of hate crimes against specific communities, such as Asian-Americans, along with ways to get involved and support those who are disproportionately affected.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT DEMONSTRATIONS

Learning about the history and the definition of the term 'hate crimes' is critical to our understanding of what is happening in our world. In this course, we will discuss the rise of hate crimes against specific communities, such as Asian-Americans, along with ways to get involved and support those who are disproportionately affected.

FAMILY AND FRIENDS

BECOMING A PET PARENT

Have you been considering pet adoption? This seminar offers valuable information to prospective pet parents, with topics ranging from selecting the right type of pet for your family, to expenses associated with pet care and the differences between pet stores and animal shelters. Attendees will also be provided with many topics for further research, to aid in their pet adoption journey.

BEST PRACTICES FOR SUPPORTING OTHERS

This seminar will allow participants to discuss the basic techniques for providing help and support to others. Participants will learn how they can provide support without taking on the role of a counselor/therapist and leave with real life strategies they can use to help listen and support their loved ones.

CAREGIVING

Nearly one out of three Americans is currently providing care for a family member. This class will cover the issues of self-care, how to assess your family's needs and how to maintain balance within your life. We will also discuss common emotions caregivers may experience as well as special situations caregivers may face.

CHILDREN AND DIVORCE

This class will discuss many issues that can occur for children during a divorce. Topics will include how to break the news to your children, how you can reassure them and help them cope with issues of self-blame. We will look at the basic needs of children during this time, including how you can help your children effectively communicate and achieve continuity, while living in multiple homes.

CHILDREN AND STRESS

Stress impacts children as young as seven years old, which can stop them from having a happier and more balanced childhood. This workshop outlines the causes, signs and red flags of stress among children and when parents should seek additional guidance. We will discuss the symptoms of stress in children along with techniques that will help children on an everyday basis.

COMPASSION

This workshop is geared to teach younger children, ages four to eight, about the importance of being kind to each other. Children will brainstorm ways to "fill their bucket" with good deeds and kind actions towards their friends.

DEALING WITH CHANGE FOR FAMILIES

Change is inevitable in life; however, for some, changes can be harder to adapt to than for others. This seminar will equip participants with the tools they will need to successfully navigate change together as a family. In this seminar, we will discuss what big or small changes are going on in participants' lives and address what is needed to work through these changes as a family. Children, partners, spouses and friends will all be addressed in this seminar.

DON'T FORGET YOUR SOCIAL LIFE!

Are you working your life away six days a week, or 12 hours a day? Don't forget that it's important from time-to-time to close that mental office door, kick back for some leisure and fun and remember that stress reduction activities are an essential part of life. Make time for your favorite hobbies, as well as the people who are important to you. This seminar is all about balancing your job with your social life.

ELDER CARE

It's not uncommon for one family member to be the sole caregiver for an older relative. This seminar will teach participants how to create a family approach to caregiving. We will discuss how family dynamics and family history affect a family's ability to work together as caregivers. Participants will learn strategies for problem-solving and managing conflicts with siblings and other family members.

FAMILY & FRIEND GUIDE TO PTS

We hear a lot about Post Traumatic Stress (PTS), but it can often be confusing for family and friends to support their loved ones who live with it every day. This training addresses what PTS is, in plain language, and how it can develop. Even more important, this seminar will cover how we can support our loved ones who are dealing with PTS symptoms and the sometimes frustrating situations it can create.

FATHERHOOD: A DAY IN THE LIFE

This journey we call life has plenty of plot twists along the way. Becoming a father is toward the top of this great story. You are your son's first superhero and your daughter's first love. In this seminar, we will talk about how to prepare for the changes, balance your priorities and establish a routine.

FRIENDS AND FAMILY: OUR FOUNDATION IN LIFE

Family and Friends are the bedrock of a happy life. They are our most important relationships that highlight good times and support through our most difficult experiences. During this training, you will learn the benefits of having friends and family (both from a mental and physical health perspective), how to deal with familial issues, and how to rekindle relationships in a post pandemic world.

GRIEF, DYING AND DEATH

This is meant to be a thoughtful and compassionate seminar that helps people talk and deal with a topic that's not often discussed. For many of us, this can be a very confusing time in our lives when we lose someone close to us and we don't have a lot of experience with it. This is a session where people can share, explore and educate themselves on ways of coping with their grief.

HANDLING A FAMILY CRISIS

For those who may be going through a family crisis or simply want to prepare, this class will cover how to manage expectations and guilt. Learn how to cope with financial challenges and what to expect during transition times. This class can also be geared toward managers supporting employees going through a family crisis.

HELPING OUR CHILDREN ACHIEVE THEIR DREAMS

During this seminar, participants will gain the knowledge to help empower our children with the tools to turn their dreams into realities. We will focus on the importance of fostering a supportive and non-judgmental environment. This presentation will aid parents in the transition to becoming their child's coach, to help them achieve their dreams.

HELPING TROUBLED TEENS

This seminar will cover the facts of what it is like for a teen to live with a mental illness. We will discuss signs and symptoms, when a parent should be worried and how to get help. We will introduce what an addiction is and give suggestions on what you can do as a parent, to help your child.

HOLIDAY SURVIVAL GUIDE

We all have special feelings about the holidays. For many, it's a wonderful time for celebration, family gatherings and joyful memories. For others, it's a time of sadness and, possibly, a feeling of being overwhelmed. In this seminar, participants examine sources of holiday stress and learn strategies for coping and managing their emotions, time, relationships and finances. Participants will also share ideas for organizing holiday tasks, managing holiday demands and look at the role of holiday traditions.

IS HIGH SCHOOL ENOUGH? THE NEW AGE

Today, most Americans believe that a college education has taken on the position that a high school education once had; a college degree is now a necessary ingredient for a good job and a way to live a comfortable lifestyle. In this seminar, we will go over the important life skills and responsibilities one gains in college, along with how to decide if the expense is worth it. Do you have a plan for your child or children? We will also go over goal setting at an early age, and how to create a plan for your child.

KEEPING YOUR AGING LOVED ONES SAFE

We all want to be safe and enjoy our life to the fullest extend as we age. For that to happen, both caregivers and seniors need to be well-informed on basic safety procedures. This seminar will introduce six areas of safety procedures, with resources and tips that seniors and caregivers can use to stay as safe as possible throughout the years. (This program is available in two parts with each covering three areas, or as one combined presentation.)

KINDNESS

The goal of this seminar is to equip participants with the self-reflective tools needed to define kindness in their own lives. In today's world, kindness is more important than ever before, as we struggle together to adjust and adapt to an ever-changing idea of 'normal'. We will acknowledge why empathy and emotional intelligence are essential traits for everyone, and how kindness - an act of doing good deeds towards others - is needed in the workplace and at home with our friends, families and in our communities.

MANAGING FEAR AND ANXIETY IN CHILDREN

During this presentation, we will discuss some important tactics to help children, throughout all age groups, deal with anxiety and fear. Parents will learn that our own fears and anxieties must be managed in order to provide proper support to our children. After completing this training, participants will be able to help their children cope with their anxieties through compassion, structure, and flexibility.

NAVIGATING DECISIONS AS A FAMILY

Sometimes there is no choice. Sometimes decisions are made quickly, and we need to learn the tools to communicate these choices effectively to our children and families. In this seminar, we will address the questions you may have about family decisions and how to navigate them with as little stress as possible. We will address different decisions you may be facing; concerns you may have and how your decisions will affect the entire family. People may be at different places, but the process should be about the same. This seminar will provide you with the tools you will need to navigate decisions as a family.

RAISING DIVERSITY IN YOUR HOME

This is an opportunity for all parents/caregivers to learn how to effectively communicate on the diversities in the world today. We all come in different shapes and sizes, and we have different backgrounds, beliefs and abilities, which reflect on where we come from. You will learn how to talk about dealing with stereotypes and how to set a positive example for your kids.

RELATIONSHIPS

The definition of a good relationship is personal, but in many cases, it is shaped by a supportive partnership that fosters growth by each of the individuals. This class will include interactive and lively discussions on the misconceptions of relationships, the meaning of fulfillment, the importance of communication and the real definition of happiness.

SCREEN GUIDE

In today's digital world, many parents are conflicted on when and how often to let their children use their screens. We will discuss age limits and recommend some of the apps/websites that have been approved, so parents can safely set limits. Setting limits often brings many challenges and we will delve into how to tell our children why guidelines are necessary.

STEPFAMILIES

We all come in different shapes and sizes, and we have different backgrounds, beliefs and abilities depending, in part, on the style of family we come from. Whether we're from adoptive families to single-parent households, blended families, families with stay-at-home fathers and same-sex households, the care and support family members offer to one another is essential to the adequate functioning and development of children in today's society. In this session, we will discuss discipline, family values and how to have fun, regardless of your family composition!

SURVIVING AND THRIVING THROUGH DIVORCE

This seminar provides helpful and practical information for those experiencing all stages of a divorce or separation, including an overview of the divorce process, litigation versus mediation, coping skills and tips on surviving the emotional toll of separation or divorce.

TEEN SUICIDE PREVENTION

13 Reasons Why was a 2017 Netflix series that was based on the book by Jay Asher. The series was popular but raised major concerns from the mental health community around the topic of suicide. To some, the series portrayed suicide in an irresponsible and dangerous manner. To others, it showed suicide as a romanticized notion of "speaking from the grave," to incite blame and revenge. In this session, we will discuss these issues and more.

THE SANDWICH GENERATION

Most employees today will face having to take care of an elderly relative while they are still taking care of their own families. This is known as the "Sandwich Generation". This class will discuss how to collect information, communicate with family members and be proactive about planning for the care of your aging parents/relatives.

TODAY'S FAMILY: CHALLENGES AND CHANGES

Whether you have a traditional family or a single-parent household, all families face many of the same challenges. Parenting is still one of the toughest jobs we have. This class looks at the history of families and offers some best practices for how to keep the dynamic healthy, including some fun things families can do together. This class is meant to be discussion based.

TOO MUCH GAMING

Gaming Addiction is a newly named disorder that can affect your life the same as a substance addiction. In this program, we will discuss the difference between playing games and having an addiction to games and learning how to spot the disorder. Treatment options will also be discussed so those affected are able to get the help they need.

FINANCIAL

401(K) SAVINGS FUNDAMENTALS

The goal of this class is to provide you with a fundamental understanding of retirement savings and why it is so important to start saving now. Learning how to invest in 401(k) savings plans will not be such a daunting problem once you learn the fundamentals. By starting early in a plan, you will have the advantages of building up wealth accumulation for retirement. Finally, we will provide you with information on resources to support your investment planning.

ADJUSTABLE-RATE MORTGAGES

Adjustable-Rate Mortgages supply distinctive advantages and risks for homebuyers. This seminar will examine a variety of adjustable-rate mortgages available to help homebuyers make educated decisions about their home financing.

ADVANCE DIRECTIVES

There are so many issues in life that you can't prepare for, but advance directives, just as the name implies, helps you plan for directives that you want done in the future. This class will define advance directives and show their benefits. Participants will learn about living wills and durable powers of attorney for health care. We will also provide strategies for communicating with older relatives about the need for advance directives as well as resources that can help you complete them.

ADVANCED TOOLS AND TECHNIQUES FOR THE FULLY FUNDED 401(K)

This class will introduce participants on how to best manipulate their current 401(k) holdings to reduce future taxes, expand their legacy to family, and coordinate IRAs with these 401(k) tools. We will discuss tax advantages (i.e., NUA technique), stock options in company plans, applicability of a Roth IRA when deciding on income sources, the opportunity of 'in service' withdrawals, and more deductible investment tools to manage risk as you get older.

BASIC BANKING AND BANKING TIPS

Learn the different aspects of banking, banking products, services and procedures, and their effect on managing your money. In this class, we will understand the role a bank has in the creation of money supply, the importance of keeping a healthy cost- to- income ratio and the basic concepts of accounting, such as assets, liabilities, debits and credits. Participants will also learn to balance multiple accounts and understand the difference between mutual funds and CDs.

BUILDING GOOD CREDIT AND IMPROVING YOUR CREDIT SCORE

Your credit score is important. In this seminar, we will motivate and reassure participants with low credit scores that there are ways to make it better. We will explain how the FICO system works, what you should and should not do, and how you can improve your credit score.

DOCUMENTS FOR LIFE

It is often difficult to discuss the future with aging parents and other older relatives. This seminar will guide you through the important discussions to have with your aging relatives including managing and documenting their financial and healthcare plans and preferences. We will cover the documentation that you should consider putting in place, including advance directives, beneficiary forms, wills and trusts.

ELDERCARE - FINANCIAL PLANNING

Many of us help our older relatives with their finances and this seminar will guide you through that process. This seminar will give you an opportunity to create a budget to cover the basics of social security, Medicare, while respecting the wants and needs of your loved ones. You will also learn some warning signs that your loved ones may need extra help, as well as scams and pitfalls to be aware of, that have affected seniors.

ESTATE PLANNING

This seminar does not offer legal advice but does explain the documentation needed for estate planning. You will learn the terms for will-planning, guardianships and trusts, and review the pros and cons of various options.

ESTATE PLANNING - RAMIFICATIONS OF YOUR EMPLOYEE BENEFITS PACKAGE

This class will help older employees understand how the benefits they earned during their employment years will affect their lives to come. Conversations will include group life insurance, pensions, long-term care, deferred compensation, income with respect to a decedent (IRD), and even frequent flyer miles. All of these have tax and planning ramifications post-employment for employees and their families. Lost opportunities such as net unrealized appreciation (NUA) to lower taxes on company stock, use of trusts, the differences of IRA and 401(k) as well as other qualified plans at death or disability, will also be addressed.

FINANCIAL FITNESS

Even smart people with good jobs and high-paying compensation can find themselves in financial problems. Cash flow and debt issues can be a daily distraction and make for 'bad' corporate and personal behavior. This course will address the personal impact of financial inaction, the effect on family, and some of the simple and small steps necessary to initiate significant change.

FINANCIAL PLANNING FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

College is expensive and figuring out a way to afford it can be overwhelming. In this session, we will make it easier for you to predict the challenges and prepare for the funding of college. Participants will learn about a variety of options to help cover the cost of college, including 529 savings plans, loans, scholarships and different types of financial aid. We will also cover things to consider when selecting a college.

FINANCIAL WELLNESS AND MOVING FORWARD

As more time passes, we reflect on what we experienced in the year 2020 and use it to move forward in a positive direction. In this course, participants will explore the positive steps everyone can take to better their finances, health and interpersonal relationships and how these three areas are interrelated. In doing this, participants will understand how to improve their situation both this year and beyond, through the applications of best practices.

HANDLING FINANCIAL STRESS

A significant subset of Americans is living paycheck to paycheck right now, including many with six-figure incomes. Are you one of them? What can you do about it? This course focuses on concrete ways to stabilize and support your income, control your spending and plan for emergencies.

HOLIDAY BUDGETING

We may have our finances under control during the year, but holidays can seriously send spending out of control. This class will help you avoid waking up on January 2 thinking, "how could I have spent and eaten that much!?" This motivational class teaches a skill set to keep the holidays in balance, financially.

HOME BUYING: THE BEST INVESTMENT

In today's economy, there are few investments that offer as good of a return than a home. In this seminar, we will explain the process of buying a home and the preparation that's necessary for such a major, long-term investment. We will cover terminology and provide you with resources so you can make informed decisions when buying a home.

IDENTITY THEFT PROTECTION AND SELF-HELP

Identity theft has become an unpleasant fact for many Americans. This class reviews how it occurs, how it can be prevented, as well as how to recognize some of the red flags. A checklist and resources to prevent, protect and recover are provided to participants, including actionable steps to take if it happens to you.

IMPORTANCE OF HAVING A WILL

You work hard for your money, and you should make sure that it, and your other assets, end up where you want after your death. There is much confusion about what you need to do to preserve your wealth and intentions, and in this class, participants will leave understanding the components and alternatives to their choices.

INVESTMENT BASICS

This class will help participants understand the difference between saving and investing. We will discuss how to identify your investment goals, learn how to create a mix of investments, learn key points to investing and develop a plan to get you started.

LIVING OFF YOUR PAYCHECK

This seminar supplies common sense, no-nonsense advice for making ends meet as well as reviewing goal setting and how your money beliefs can affect the way you save and spend. We will discuss how to reduce debt, learn the difference between "meat and gravy" and consider how to increase your wealth.

MANAGING A BUDGET FOR THE FIRST TIME

Your first big job comes with your first big paycheck, but it also comes with the tough questions about what you're going to use this hard-earned cash for. Taking time to devise a plan can be a critical part of the process. This class will help you to create a good budgeting plan by analyzing your income and expenses.

MANAGING YOUR MONEY IN TOUGH TIMES

For years, we have heard that if you follow sound financial practices and stick to a plan with a solid foundation, you will come out ahead. Financial times today have changed not only the rules, but also, how we need to react. In this session, we will give you new ways to think and new actions to implement to not only help you survive tough financial times, but actually come out even, or potentially ahead.

MIND OVER MONEY

This class examines your personal history with money and how money effects emotions. This includes healthy vs. unhealthy attitudes and best practices in dealing with money decisions.

MONEY ATTITUDES

MONEY BASICS

In this class, we will discuss spending and saving money. Information will include various types of credit, like secured and unsecured cards, as well as information on credit scores, their importance and how to manage bill paying.

PERSONAL FINANCE BOOT CAMP

This comprehensive three-hour program (which can be offered in three, one-hour sessions) puts all the pieces of the financial puzzle together in terms anyone can understand. It gives participants the knowledge and tools to move forward to relieve financial stressors created by lack of knowledge and confusion. With tools in hand, participants will leave with their own priorities on personal finances to make smart decisions throughout their lifetime.

PLANNING A FINANCIAL FUTURE

Preparing for the future means being financially savvy in wealth, savings, investments, and even in times of emergencies. Yet too many of us are not saving like we should. In this class, we will talk about some typical roadblocks to saving and how we can deal with them.

SOCIAL SECURITY RETIREMENT PLANNING

There are many aspects to social security that employees should be made aware of well before retirement age. Due to deadlines for applying, planning and understanding how these benefits work is very important. This class reviews what people need to know and when they need to act so that they can include social security retirement in their financial plan.

TAKE CONTROL OF YOUR FINANCES

For many individuals and families, dealing with finances can be challenging. If you get to the end of the month and feel like money has control over every aspect of your life, then this session is for you. You will learn the basic skills to be able to take control of your finances. You will also learn how to communicate about your finances and develop a plan to achieve your financial goals

TAX TIPS

This class will help you understand the secrets of reducing your taxable income, how to break down the federal tax reporting system and how to remove the mystery behind the ever-elusive tax return You discover simple changes to make about deductions and exemptions and learn the four tax-saving strategies to help reduce your taxable income.

TEACHING OUR CHILDREN ABOUT MONEY

Surveys repeatedly show that many teenagers do not understand even basic financial concepts. This class will review how we look at and communicate our money values so we can effectively instruct our children. We will discuss parental attitudes toward allowances and working, as well as how to set goals and create spending and saving strategies.

HEALTHY LIVING

A BALANCED RETIREMENT LIFE

The goal of this seminar is to help people ask the right questions so that they can make the best decisions for their retirement. We will cover the issues to consider for future planning and help you evaluate your current road map. Our goal is to focus on the positive aspects of retirement - not just the challenges.

ADDICTION

This seminar will cover it all, including what defines an addiction, how does someone become addicted and what are the signs of addiction that we need to look for? If you or someone in your life is dealing with addiction, this seminar will help you understand the symptoms, components, and even the myths surrounding the disease. It will also end with tips and steps on the recovery process.

ADVANCED EXERCISE

ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT CHOLESTEROL

In this program, participants will explore the complex role of cholesterol. They'll examine the role it plays in nutrition and health and learn about the numbers that indicate good cholesterol levels. There will be an opportunity to discuss the various types of fats that contribute to good and bad cholesterol numbers. Additionally, diet suggestions will be offered.

ALTERNATIVE MEDICINE: FACT OR FICTION

Learn the basics of the most commonly used alternative healing arts, including chiropractic, homeopathy, herbal and Chinese medicines, naturopathy, acupuncture and therapeutic massage. See how these healing modalities can contribute to and enhance your overall health and wellness.

ALZHEIMER'S AND DEMENTIA

This is not a medical class about what Alzheimer's is - it's a seminar about lifestyle and caring for those living with Alzheimer's. You will learn that it is possible to prevent Alzheimer's symptoms by living a brain-healthy lifestyle. We will talk through and suggest the steps you can take to slow down, or possibly reverse, the process of deterioration that the disease can have.

AUTISM OVERVIEW

Autism is an issue that affects many families. This class is designed to provide an overview of the autism spectrum, how to identify potential signs and provide guidance on how to cope with the challenges of raising an autistic child. There is opportunity for discussion and a review of resources to get help and support.

BE POSITIVE

Although not everyone believes in the power of positive thinking, it is a field that has been used by countries around the world for centuries. Today, scientists understand why the attitudinal approach - positive versus negative energy, dramatically affects us, as well as our relationships with others. In this class, we will discuss our ability to benefit from the power of positive thinking by making changes to our thought process and perspective.

BICYCLE SAFETY

This seminar will provide you all the information you need from bike maintenance to road safety, so that you can enjoy the ride!

BODY IMAGE

Do you ever catch yourself looking in the mirror and become judgmental, self-critical or ashamed? Unfortunately, we are probably all guilty of it from time to time, but if your body image is something you find yourself struggling with on a daily basis, this seminar can help. We will guide you through tips and tools to overcome your image issues and help you love your body exactly the way you are!

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

The purpose of this seminar is to educate and empower participants about breast cancer. (Breast self-exam demonstrations can be added). This seminar is for informational purposes only. It is not intended to give medical advice, diagnose or make treatment recommendations.

CAFETERIA SHOPPING

For many people, trying to eat healthy during the workday seems unachievable. This workshop will lead you through the typical cafeteria choices to help you create a personal "shopping list" of foods for better health.

CLEAN LIVING

Clean living is all about cleaning out the toxins in your life. This is a mind/body approach to living a clean and healthy lifestyle. We will discuss what adds toxins to your mind and body and how to eliminate them for good. Some aspects of this seminar will discuss how we can establish a healthier way of eating through whole, real, nutrient-rich food. We'll also look at how eliminating processed food, which is a normal part of most people's diets, can help support a clean-living lifestyle. We will discuss toxic products we use in the home, vitamins and supplements and many more areas during this seminar.

COLORECTAL CANCER SCREENING

To beat colorectal cancer, it is paramount that the disease is detected as early as possible, which is why colon cancer screening is so important. This presentation discusses symptoms, tests, treatments, and prevention.

COMPASSION FATIGUE

For many of us, our day-to-day jobs are not only physically exhausting, but also mentally exhausting. The class will guide you through what compassion fatigue is, the signs and symptoms and real-life strategies to combat the exhaustion in our everyday lives.

DEALING WITH MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES

Mental illness can affect your life and those around you. Whether it is a friend or loved one dealing with mental illness, there are things you can do to help clear a path for better living.

DEALING WITH SERIOUS SLEEP ISSUES

Do you have difficulty sleeping? Check out this program where you'll explore sleep disorders and their causes (circadian rhythms, insomnia and snoring/sleep apnea), discuss the benefits of sleep studies and examine sleep's relationship to stress and the release of cortisol. CAREER TRANSITIONS

Career transitions are inevitable. Facing them because of downsizing, mergers and relocations takes courage and planning. Regardless of the reason, moving forward with a job change can be a satisfying personal journey. This seminar looks at all aspects of job changing, including self-evaluation, networking, and resourcing opportunities. Participants will gain the tools and attitude they need to build a bright, satisfying future.

CHANGE MANAGEMENT FOR LEADERS

This training is designed to familiarize participants with the elements of change. The goal is to help leaders manage the change process and understand the importance of their role in the process. We will provide an overview of each element and define each one as it relates to the leaders' role in change management. Opportunities for sharing examples from your own experience for each of the elements, will be included.

COACHING

Coaching is a one-on-one process that involves a relationship between two people - the coach and an individual. We can all benefit from coaching. You will leave this seminar with the tools and tips you need to be the best coach you can be, so that you can begin working with others to develop their professional skills and goals.

COLLABORATIVE COMMUNICATION

Communication is an important skill to develop, but not many people understand why it is so important to communicate well. This class applies to parents, spouses, partners, colleagues and bosses. It explains why better communication can enhance our lives by teaching us new things. This is an interactive class, in which participants will get to practice the new techniques that are taught.

COLLABORATIVE CUSTOMER SERVICE

The goals and objectives of this seminar are to understand the challenges of delivering great customer service through effective, professional customer service communication. We will discuss stress management related to working in customer service, as well as final comments, action plans and evaluations.

COMMUNICATING CHANGE TO EMPLOYEES

Does your staff dread change? This program will identify the kinds of changes organizations face, describe how to develop a communication plan and explore the importance of being proactive. It will also explain how to communicate change successfully using empathy and active listening skills, anticipate common employee reactions and explore working through the change.

COMMUNICATING DURING TIMES OF CHANGE

We have experienced many more violent attacks in the last ten years. Social media keeps us in the know, every nano-second. When those topics come up at work, it can be an opportunity to share our views, however, we need a new set of tools to prepare us for engaging in conversations with others who have different views. This class will focus on how to look at our thought process and think before talking when controversial topics come up, so that we can reply with tact, while being respectful of others.

COMMUNICATING IN A TECH WORLD

Communicating face-to-face is not always possible in the business world. Today's communication depends on conference calls, texts and email chains that make it challenging to know when each outlet is appropriate. Nowadays, it's vital to use technology to communicate with workers worldwide. This class will show you how to interact professionally in the workplace using technology.

COMMUNICATION FOR MANAGERS

Communication is perhaps the most important skill a manager must learn and work to improve in order to be effective. From the 'One-Minute-Manager' concept to continuous feedback, there are many ways to be an effective communicator. In this class, we will learn and practice the various skills that are needed to communicate as a manager.

Have you ever driven to work but not remembered the trip? If so, then you can benefit from learning about the importance of concentration and how to improve it.

CONFLICT MANAGEMENT FOR EMPLOYEES

This class will allow participants to understand and dissect their role in conflict, which is the first step to conflict management. This is a journey to assess and learn what you can do differently, to "play in the sandbox" productively with a wide variety of people.

CONFLICT MANAGEMENT FOR MANAGERS

About 60-80% of all workplace conflicts come from strained relationships between employees and managers. Learn the skill of resolving conflict in the most amicable way, benefiting individual and team productivity.

CREATING A GREAT PLACE TO WORK IN TEN EASY STEPS

This seminar will teach participants a vision of the ten steps needed to create a great place to work, because who doesn't want to come to work every day and love where they are and what they do? Participants will come out of this class with a clear vision of not only what a healthy work environment looks like but also how to create it in their workplace. This will be a step-by-step process. To make it work, an investment must be made by each and every person.

CREATING POSITIVE WORK ENVIRONMENTS

Topics covered in this seminar will be building trust, creating positive communication, setting expectations and needs, creative ideas for recognition and rewards, building teamwork, finding meaning in your work, and accepting responsibility and humor in the workplace. All of these areas help foster a positive work environment.

CREATIVE PROBLEM-SOLVING AND DECISION MAKING

Every problem has a solution. In this program we will explore some techniques to help us get to the solution sooner rather than later. This interactive class begins by asking for a list of problems that the attendees are currently working on, so they can see real life benefits of using these techniques.

CRITICAL THINKING

Beyond just memorizing facts or learning from rote, learning to think critically expands a person's ability to problem-solve and see things in a new way. By learning how to ask different kinds of questions, we open the flood gates to different ways of viewing concepts. This class will take a look at the origins of critical thinking concepts as well as applications of them in our work and private lives.

CROSS-CULTURAL SENSITIVITY IN THE WORKPLACE

As we work towards more dynamic and inclusive workplaces, we must consider cross-cultural sensitivity in the workplace. This in-depth course touches on unconscious biases and aggressions that we may commit or experience in the workforce, while also presenting solutions to help avoid these situations in the first place. We will also discuss why it is important to foster inclusion and how to combat aggressions when we see them.

CURIOSITY

In today's times, we need to look at what we are curious about and why. Curiosity drives motivation and often encourages us to take our careers and lives to new levels.

CUSTOMER EXPECTATIONS

There is a perceived expectation that every customer has when going into a business relationship. To manage expectations, you must first start by understanding what the client's expectations are. You must learn how to manage your promises and how to measure satisfaction. Delivering on expectations means excellent customer service. In order to understand what your customers feel is a good level of service, you first need to ask them. Find out what your customer wants from your product or service. Then work out how you can meet those needs.

DARE TO BE BOLD

In today's emerging and aspiring world, we need to be bold. This seminar encourages us to achieve what we have yet to accomplish and to help us create an action plan to get there. It will touch on why we need to be bold, what holds us back, and what empowers us to move forward. This is a highly motivating class that will leave all participants thinking about their next steps in work and life.

DEALING WITH CHALLENGING PEOPLE

We all have different perspectives when defining a challenging person. Some people challenge the lives of many others, and then, there are types who can just get under our skin and push our buttons. Regardless of the particulars, we have two choices: we can learn how to effectively deal with the difficult person, or we can remove the possibility of interaction with them. In this class we will learn how to deal with the challenging people in our lives.

DEALING WITH THE ELEPHANT IN THE ROOM

Dealing with the Elephant in the Room is a communications development seminar in which participants learn the skills to talk to anyone about anything. Participants begin by identifying the uncomfortable issues and realities they face at work and at home. Then they learn how to confront such issues with tact, empathy, and clarity. This seminar helps increase productivity and improve relationships by proactively addressing problems, conflicts, and misunderstandings.

DELEGATION

The concept of delegation garners agreement in practice but can be difficult to achieve. This program will define delegation, determine what it is and what it's not, explain when to delegate and explore the barriers to delegating as well as the benefits. There will be plenty of opportunities for discussion and participants will use a delegation pyramid to describe the delegation process, examine the importance of regular and frequent communication and learn when to say no."

DISABILITY INCLUSION IN THE WORKPLACE

This seminar is a deep dive into the importance of having an inclusive work environment and best practices on how to be more aware. During this seminar we will do a review of the Americans with Disabilities Act and have a facilitated discussion on ways to foster inclusivity in the workplace.

DIVERSITY IN THE WORKPLACE

This class is not meant to fulfill a diversity requirement. It is meant to be an honest and open exchange of how detrimental and unacceptable certain demeaning behaviors are to groups that are different from the majority. The goal is not to attempt to change people's beliefs on diversity, but instead, change their behavior and reactions to situations.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

On average, more than 1 in 3 women and 1 in 4 men in the US will experience some form of domestic abuse or violence. Ending the myths and stigmas that surround domestic violence requires us to educate ourselves. This class will allow us to get a better understanding of what domestic violence is, signs to look out for, traits of what an abuser can look like and tips on how to help someone or get help for yourself.

DYNAMICS OF CHANGE MANAGEMENT

Change is stressful and learning how to manage and cope with change is crucial to our well-being in this ever-changing world. Although the stress of change is unavoidable, you can learn how to deal effectively with change in the workplace and in your personal life. In this seminar, participants will learn effective ways to cope with change in addition to learning how to take charge of the aspects that can be controlled. Core concepts related to stress and the emotional and physical responses we must change will be discussed, along with effective stress management strategies.

EFFECTIVE INTERVIEWING SKILLS FOR INTERVIEWERS

In this interactive seminar, participants will learn and practice essential skills for conducting successful interviews and creating a systematic hiring process that will yield effective results.

EFFECTIVE ONE-ON-ONE CONVERSATIONS

It is our goal to help participants learn how to be understood in a one-on-one conversation. We will examine why the conversation is happening, what needs to happen and how to achieve your goals effectively.

EFFECTIVE PERFORMANCE APPRAISALS

Delivering a performance appraisal can be as intimidating for a manager as it is for the employee. The goal should be to not only document and evaluate the employee's performance, but also set goals for growth and allow for an open and honest dialogue about expectations.

EFFECTIVE PRESENTATION AND PUBLIC SPEAKING SKILLS

Having excellent presentation skills is essential for success. In this seminar, participants will learn how to plan for successful presentations, build confidence, practice verbal and body language elements and learn how to

We will cover powerful word choices as well as do's and don'ts.

EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE

Many of us know that getting along with others is the key to success. Our ability to "play nicely in the sandbox" is fundamental to both our career and our health. We will discuss what an emotion is, why you are having it and understand how our feelings can affect our moods in our daily life and the people that surround us.

EQ MAKING IT WORK FOR YOU

This seminar is meant to follow the Emotional Intelligence class, although it is not a pre-requisite. This is an in-depth class focusing on what an emotion is and how understanding our emotions can help make or break situations. It's an interactive tool-based seminar that dives deeper into the amazing world of emotional intelligence.

ETHICS AND VALUES

What a changing world we live in. What are the core values and ethics of our business world? How do we live by them and why are they important? This workshop addresses the philosophical aspects of ethics and values through hands-on, practical approaches to events in participants' personal and professional lives. We will also address how to show your manager/partner/child that you are a person of ethics and values.

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT LINKEDIN

This program defines LinkedIn and explains what it does and what it's used for. The presentation gives instructions for getting on LinkedIn and how to network and connect with the participants' interests. Participants will also explore types of LinkedIn services, additional networking options and how to successfully use it for marketing.

FOSTERING INCLUSION IN THE WORKPLACE

Inclusive work environments are productive environments! This seminar discusses how employees and managers can create an inclusive workplace. Participants will learn to identify activities, attitudes and assumptions that exclude coworkers. They will then explore ideas to include others in ways that enrich the office environment as well as their own personal lives.

HANDLING AND MANAGING CHAOS

This class will engage participants in learning how to handle chaos. We have all learned that chaos plays a bigger role in our lives, and for many, this has been a major source of anxiety. We invite participants to examine their pre-conceived notions of chaos and begin the process of welcoming it into their everyday lives.

HANDLING DEATH IN THE WORKPLACE

There are many ways people handle grief and death. The challenge is to be able to handle all of the personal coping behaviors and not be judgmental during times of high emotion, in the workplace. Participants delve into handling awkward, uncomfortable interactions at work, while acknowledging varying relationships between coworkers.

HEALTH AND WELL-BEING IN THE WORKPLACE

Discover how to enhance your health, well-being, and productivity by relieving stress with simple relaxation techniques. Explore ergonomics and learn how to prevent on-the-job injuries from lifting, repetitive stress (such as carpal tunnel syndrome) and computer-related injuries (headache, eyestrain, and back pain). The discussion will include work/life balance, how to establish priorities and the importance of healthy eating and regular exercise.

HOW TO BE AN INCLUSIVE LEADER

Today's challenging times demand specific skill sets to ensure our workplaces allow all thoughts and actions to be voiced without fear. This class will focus on tools to unlearn our biases, the importance of psychological safety, and best practices for creating an inclusive work environment.

HOW TO CREATE THE SECRET SAUCE - THE PERFECT TEAM

This class is specifically for women and covers the history and trends of women in leadership, as well as the special challenges and needs women have when in positions of leadership.

LIFE IN TODAY'S UNCERTAIN TIMES

The uncertainty of our world poses many challenges for us in the workplace and at home. The increase of stress from social and racial tension, along with its fast-changing climate, requires tools to make good decisions. This class will look at the dynamics of this environment and provide the tools for managing the range of emotions we feel. This includes ways of talking with coworkers regarding sensitive issues, as well as taking care of ourselves and increasing our resiliency.

MAINTAINING A HEALTH-CONSCIOUS WORKPLACE

For many of us, the last time we heard about incident command, safety, or a healthy work environment was during our onboarding process, which could have been many years ago! However, these topics, among others, have remained relevant and recent events have highlighted the need to reinforce and reinvent the way we communicate these ideas, through yearly training. This topic is centered on a novel, general pitch of these topics that will illustrate how employees can become involved and raise awareness of workplace policy management. While not a formalized training on these issues, the seminar will spark conversation and ideas about how to better implement safety and health-conscious attitudes in the workplace and serve as a springboard to the government-certified courses.

MAINTAINING A SAFE WORK ENVIRONMENT

A safe work environment is created by organizational leadership and staff. It involves understanding risk. It also involves defining unacceptable behavior and establishing consequences. Workplaces are safer when employees know how to handle disruptive situations and effectively document incidents. Workplaces that are open to the public, and that service clients and customers, face special challenges which are also addressed in this session.

MAKING MEETINGS EFFECTIVE

We often must spend more time in meetings than we would like. Whether you attend or run meetings, we will review how you can make them efficient, effective and productive.

MAKING THE MOST OF A MULTI-GENERATIONAL WORKFORCE

Storytelling is a powerful way of putting ideas into the world. Not only do they move us, inspire us, and make us feel alive, stories can bring us hope and make us understand life better. This is not just a feel-good class; storytelling is now recognized as one of the top five skills needed for business leaders. We will examine what goes into good storytelling and how it can be a powerful tool for business.

STRESS MANAGEMENT FOR HIGH BURNOUT PROFESSIONS

This seminar is designed to give managers and directors the tools to assess and address their needs, as well as their employees' needs, in a high-stress, high-trauma work environment. We will explore the newest research and what experts are saying, including the seven signs that correlate with burnout.

STRESS MANAGEMENT FOR MANAGERS

This is a step-by-step seminar on what stress is, how it effects your team, and ways managers can help de-escalate their own stress and that of their staff. This is all about stress, with tips and tools to manage stress for both you and your employees.

STRESS MANAGEMENT FOR THE NEW PROFESSIONAL

Stress, especially the pressures of handling a new profession, can be difficult to deal with. Knowing effective ways to help deal with this stress is crucial for being positive every day at work. Excessive stress can interfere with your emotional and physical well-being, which is not the way anyone would like to start their new career. In this class, you will learn ways to cope and manage your stress levels to keep yourself at the top of your game.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE FOR MANAGERS

There are several aspects of substance abuse that managers need to know in order to understand how to deal with workplace issues legally, sensitively, and fairly. Your EAP is the ultimate resource, but often a manager is the gatekeeper for making sure that employees who need help, get help.

SUICIDE AWARENESS AND PREVENTION FOR MANAGERS

During this class, we will review both myths and facts about suicide. We will discuss the warning signs to look for, as well as when and how we intervene. Managers will leave this session with tips for navigating difficult conversations, well as how to get employees the help they need.

SUICIDE PREVENTION

In today's world, knowing the early warning signs of suicide is of critical importance. In a considerate manner, this seminar will explore the ways we can all play a role in identifying the warning signs and implementing suicide prevention programs at work and in our community.

SURVIVING MERGERS AND ACQUISITIONS

In this seminar, participants will learn what to expect in the midst of organizational change, find out ways to navigate through the process and review the five phases of dealing with change. They will also learn about the opportunities and importance of self-care and making a commitment to the new business structure and culture.

SURVIVOR'S GUIDE TO DOWNSIZING

Companies are under economic pressure to remain competitive and survive. Downsizing, or rightsizing, is happening rapidly everywhere - from one day to another, from one minute to the next. The major purpose of this workshop is to help move you to action.

TEAMWORK

The ability to understand and communicate effectively in teams is an important part of our personal and professional success. Through discussion, interactive exercises, and a debriefing session, we will learn how to apply successful team concepts and strategies in very practical ways and explore how teams can work together most effectively.

THE 5 BUCKETS PRINCIPLE (TM)

Is it possible to meet the competing demands of finances, friends and family, work, health, and community? The resounding answer is yes! In this fun, interactive seminar, participants will learn the 5 Buckets Principle of work/life balance to get the tools to prioritize what is and should be important to them. They will learn how to think about the BIG PICTURE without ignoring the little things that matter. We will show them how to find the time to manage it all, including time for themselves, and for fun, by identifying priorities, making choices, and managing expectations.

THE ART OF NEGOTIATION

There is no job that doesn't use negotiation. It is the key to our career success. We all know that no one gives us anything for free, it is all about give and take. This is a motivating class in which individuals learn to strengthen their own personal negotiation techniques.

THE FURLOUGHED EMPLOYEE

An unprecedented number of employers have furloughed employees. This course will compare and contrast the concepts of furloughs vs. layoffs. Employees will learn tips in this course, with a managers' version of this course also available.

THE IMPORTANCE OF SHOWING UP TO WORK

Showing up for work demonstrates one's commitment, work ethic and an understanding of one's role in the larger scope of the organization. In this training, participants will identify work ethics, explore the impact of absenteeism in the workplace (the cost to do business through the theft of time and the effect on morale), to determine how to encourage attendance and look at illness, root causes of absenteeism and tardiness.

THE NEW RESUME

If you have not looked for a job within the last five years, you may not know that the entire job search process has completely changed, and that the role of the resume is very different. In this class, we will learn how to create the new resume.

THE POWER OF PERSUASION: HOW TO INFLUENCE OTHERS

We all need to convince people to do or avoid certain things. We will cover best practices, tips, and examples of how to shift your style in a way that best appeals to the audience you're speaking to.

THINKING TRAPS

This is an exploratory process as to how our thoughts can decrease our productivity and our passions. We'll look at how to define thinking traps, as well as how to action plans to overcome them.

TRUST

A cornerstone of every relationship is trust. Defining trust and understanding its components are essential for meaningful relationships within our personal and communal lives. We will discuss why you need the trust of others, how you get it, how you lose it and how you get it back.

UNCONSCIOUS BIAS

Are we on top of our biases, or might we be harboring some prejudices that lie outside of our awareness? This program will define unconscious bias and give us a framework for how we understand it. With numerous discussion opportunities, participants will explore biases, look at how unconscious bias is measured, examine the conflict that arises between one's natural inclination to categorize vs. the conscious drive towards diversity, and identify ways to overcome these biases. *No recordings of live sessions for this topic.

UNDERSTANDING COLLEAGUES WITH AUTISM

Learn important information related to adults living with autism spectrum disorder (ASD). This training will identify common behaviors, challenges and how to set your ASD employees up for success within your organization.

UNDERSTANDING PERSONALITY TYPES

Understanding personality types can be somewhat confusing. This one-hour seminar is designed to gain a practical understanding of the different types of personalities and teach you how personality types can impact our behavior. Participants will identify their own personality type to learn how to use type preference as an energy management tool that enhances their skills in interpersonal communication.

USING YOUR EAP BENEFIT

Learn about all of the benefits that your EAP can bring you: from finding childcare, to receiving legal advice and anything in between. We want to make sure you know the ins and outs of using your EAP and how it can help support you in your work and personal lives.

WORKING WITH MILLENNIALS

During this seminar, we will look at tips and tools that can guide you while working with this mission-based generation of millennials: a generation that usually has a lot of misconceptions attributed to them. We will talk about why those misconceptions are out there and take a deeper dive into discussing what contributions and traits millennials bring to the workplace.

WORKPLACE TRAUMA - FOR MANAGERS

Understanding the various aspects of trauma is part of living in today's challenging world. In this seminar, you will learn about the different aspects of trauma, including traumatic stress, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, grief, and organizational trauma. The main focus of the class is understanding how trauma effects the workplace and learn best practices for leaders.

YOU'RE PROMOTED! THE NEW MANAGER

For participants who were recently given a promotion, we discuss the importance of influencing and inspiring others. Participants will learn what it takes to make an effective manager by going over communication skills that help build confidence within their team along with when and how to delegate certain tasks.
