

2026 Training and Wellness Seminars

Courses designed to empower employees, enhance skills, and foster innovation in the workplace.

Introduction

When your employees are facing personal or professional challenges, it can impact your company's culture and overall performance. We are dedicated to providing employees and managers with valuable resources, techniques, and support.

Through our seminars and podcasts we aim to educate employees and people leaders on important health, wellness, and work-life balance issues. Our offerings cover a wide range of topics, including substance use, bullying, retirement planning, and communication skills. Additionally, we offer leadership-focused topics such as managing change, fostering inclusion, and effective delegation.

Q: How and when can I schedule a seminar or podcast?

A: You can request a seminar or podcast by contacting your Client Consultant. We ask for a minimum of 15- to 20-day notice to coordinate your event. Let your Client Consultant know which seminar or podcast you want to offer, along with where and when you'd like to have it.

Q: How long are the seminars, podcasts and videos?

A: Most seminars are 50-60 minutes in length. Podcasts vary but are typically between 5-15 minutes. Additional fees/hours may apply for training over 60 minutes and podcast customizations.

Q: Where are the seminars held?

A: Seminars can take place on-site, be held virtually, or both. Please let your Client Consultant know which format you prefer.

Q: Do I need to have any special equipment to hold an on-site seminar or training?

A: Yes, you will need to have a computer with Microsoft PowerPoint and the technology to project a slide show. Plan to have the presentation loaded and ready to go on the day of your seminar. If you do not have this technology, you can still schedule a seminar — just let your Client Consultant know.

Q: Can these seminars be recorded for playback at a later time?

A: Yes, you will need to request the event be recorded. Once your event is done, you will receive a link to your recording.

Q: How much do the seminars and podcasts cost?

A: Seminars and podcasts are subtracted from your contracted training bank of hours. After you've used your hours, the seminars and podcasts are billed fee for service. Contact your Client Consultant for information about pricing and your training bank balance.

Q: Can we cancel a seminar?

A: Yes, but we ask for a 72-hour cancellation notice for all live events. Failure to give notice may result in a cancellation fee or deduction of the seminar hours from your available bank of hours.

Q: What happens once the seminar is scheduled?

A: You will receive a confirmation via email, including event details, presentation materials, and an evaluation QR code.

Q: Will I speak with the facilitator the seminar?

A: Yes, your facilitator will contact you before the seminar date to introduce themselves and discuss any outstanding details. Be sure to tell the facilitator about your workplace culture, the work your employees do, and your goals for the event.

Q: Does the EAP have a minimum attendance requirement?

A: No, but we prefer five or more employees. *Trainings should not be used as a direct employee coaching session, or to replace the role of HR in addressing performance and other workplace concerns.

Q: How do I obtain the results of the training evaluations?

A: Contact your Client Consultant to request the results. These are made available upon request only.

Q: What's the best way to ensure a successful event?

A: Here are a few steps to help make sure it's a success:

- Select a topic of interest to your employees.
- Schedule the event well in advance.
- Promote your event widely and often.
- Send a reminder message to your employees.
- Distribute seminar materials.

COMMUNITY

INCLUSION & PRONOUNS

This class focuses on promoting understanding and inclusion for people of all sexual orientations and gender identities. We'll discuss the importance of using inclusive language as a cornerstone for respecting our diverse colleagues and explore the distinctions between attraction, sexual attraction, and gender. Join us to deepen your awareness and create a more inclusive environment for everyone.

COMMUNITY AND GIVING BACK: LEAVING OUR FOOTPRINTS

Community and Giving Back: Leaving Our Footprints

In this training, participants will explore the profound mental, emotional, and physical benefits of giving back through service. We will address common fears and barriers to getting involved and guide you in discovering your unique purpose within your community. Few experiences in life provide the same sense of fulfillment as helping others. By the end of this session, participants will be equipped with practical resources, a renewed sense of motivation, and a clear pathway to start making a meaningful impact in their community.

COPING WITH MASS SHOOTINGS

In this presentation, participants will learn how to navigate the emotional and psychological challenges that arise in the aftermath of mass shootings. These events, which disrupt the sense of safety for both children and adults, are unfortunately a growing reality we must all be prepared to face. Participants will gain tools to recognize the warning signs of trauma, anxiety, and distress, and learn practical coping mechanisms to manage their own well-being and support others during these uncertain times. Additionally, we will discuss how to access professional help and community resources to foster resilience in the face of tragedy.

CULTURAL MYTHS IN MEDIA: FACT OR FICTION

In this session, participants will explore how the media shapes and constructs cultural narratives that influence our society. We will examine the powerful tools used by media—such as imagery, language, and emotional appeals—to create myths that evoke strong reactions from the public. As the landscape of media evolves with the rise of blogs and online platforms, participants will learn how to become critical consumers of information. This session will provide the resources necessary to discern fact from fiction and develop a more informed perspective in today's media-driven world.

DISASTER PREPAREDNESS

Disasters often strike unexpectedly, leaving many unprepared for the aftermath. In this session, we will explore the critical steps and resources needed to ensure you and your loved ones are ready for any emergency. Participants will learn how to develop a comprehensive disaster preparedness plan that includes protecting family members, pets, important documents, and their home. By the end of this session, you'll have the knowledge and tools to face disasters with greater confidence and readiness.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS: HONORING, REMEMBERING, AND CELEBRATING A LIFE

In this session, we will explore the grieving process and provide guidance on navigating the difficult journey of losing a loved one. Participants will learn how to initiate proactive conversations about end-of-life wishes, making funeral planning more manageable and respectful of final desires. The session will also cover caregivers' rights, important considerations when making final arrangements, managing personal grief, and available support for post-bereavement care. By the end, you'll feel more prepared to honor your loved ones and care for yourself through the process.

FIRST RESPONDERS: FOCUS ON WELLNESS

Supporting first responders requires specialized knowledge and skills, as their high-stress, trauma-filled work can deeply impact their well-being, both on the job and at home. This discussion-based session will explore key insights into the unique challenges faced by first responders and healthcare workers, offering practical tools and strategies to address their mental, emotional, and physical wellness. Join us to learn how we can better support these vital professionals and help them maintain resilience in the face of extraordinary pressures.

HOW SAFE ARE YOU?

In today's world, personal safety is a top priority for us and our loved ones. This interactive session will teach participants best practices to reduce the likelihood of becoming a target, while also learning how to project confidence and stay focused in dangerous situations. You will gain valuable resources to recognize unsafe environments, develop action plans for various scenarios, and collaborate effectively with law enforcement when necessary. Join us to enhance your awareness and preparedness in maintaining personal safety.

LGBTQIA+ MENTAL HEALTH – EVERY MIND MATTERS

In this class, we'll explore the unique risk factors and forms of trauma faced by the LGBTQIA+ community. We'll dive into mental health statistics and discuss how to build resilience, offer genuine allyship, and know when and how to seek help for yourself or others. Join us to learn valuable tools for supporting mental health and foster a more inclusive, supportive environment for everyone.

POLITICAL ANXIETY

In recent times, political divisions have created stress and anxiety in ways many of us have never experienced before. Regardless of your political affiliation, it is possible to manage this stress and prevent political discussions from turning confrontational, especially during family gatherings. In this course, participants will learn strategies to acknowledge and respect differences, identify areas of control in their lives, and engage in meaningful, respectful conversations that reduce political anxiety. Join us to explore ways to maintain peace and understanding in politically charged environments.

POWER OF VOLUNTEERING

In this class, participants will explore how volunteering positively impacts both individuals and organizations. We will discuss the physical, intellectual, and emotional benefits of giving back to the community. Participants will gain insights into how volunteering can enhance both personal and professional growth, while also building meaningful connections. By the end of this session, you'll have the resources and motivation needed to start making a difference in your own community!

STAYING CENTERED: MANAGING EMOTIONS DURING ELECTION SEASON

This session provides strategies for navigating the emotional demands associated with election periods. It includes sections aimed at helping individuals recognize and manage their emotions, focusing on techniques for grounding, self-compassion, and positive action.

FAMILY AND FRIENDS

BECOMING A PET PARENT

Thinking about adopting a furry (or feathered) friend? This seminar will guide you through the exciting journey of becoming a pet parent. From choosing the perfect pet to fit your family's lifestyle to understanding the costs of pet care, we'll cover everything you need to know before bringing a new companion home. You'll also explore the key differences between adopting from a shelter and purchasing from a pet store. Join us for an interactive session packed with tips, best practices, and resources to help you make informed decisions and prepare for a rewarding pet adoption experience.

BEST PRACTICES FOR SUPPORTING OTHERS

In this interactive seminar, participants will explore effective techniques for offering support without stepping into the role of a counselor or therapist. You'll gain real-life strategies for actively listening and providing meaningful support to friends, family, and colleagues. Through role-playing scenarios, participants will also learn how to handle workplace dynamics in ways that resonate positively with employees. Whether you're supporting loved ones or managing a team, this session will equip you with the tools to foster stronger, more supportive relationships.

BUILDING DEEPER CONNECTIONS NEW!

Discover practical tools to deepen personal and professional connections. This engaging session explores how intention, presence, vulnerability, and empathy can strengthen your relationships and improve your well-being. Learn to identify patterns from your past, communicate openly, and nurture meaningful connections that support both emotional and physical health.

CAREGIVING

With nearly one in three Americans providing care for a family member, the responsibilities of caregiving can be overwhelming. This class will explore how to balance caregiving with your own well-being, offering practical self-care strategies and ways to assess your family's needs. We'll discuss the emotional challenges caregivers face, the unique circumstances you may encounter, and share valuable resources to help ensure that you care for yourself while caring for others. Join us to find the support and tools you need to navigate this important role.

CHILDREN AND DIVORCE

Divorce can be a challenging time for children, filled with confusion and emotional turmoil. In this class, we'll explore the common difficulties children face during the divorce process and how parents can provide the support they need. We'll discuss how to talk to your children about divorce, reassure them, and offer resources to help them cope with feelings of self-blame. Additionally, participants will gain tools to help children communicate their emotions and maintain a sense of continuity and stability amidst the changes. Join us for practical strategies that will help your children adjust with confidence and resilience.

CHILDREN AND STRESS

Stress can affect children as young as seven, preventing them from enjoying a happy and well-balanced childhood. In this workshop, we'll explore the causes and warning signs of stress in children and identify when parents should seek additional support. Participants will learn to recognize symptoms of stress and discover practical techniques to help their children cope on a daily basis. Join us to better understand how stress impacts young minds and gain tools to create a more supportive, stress-free environment for your child.

DEALING WITH CHANGE FOR FAMILIES

Change is a constant in life, but for some, it can be more challenging to embrace. This seminar provides participants with practical tools to navigate changes within the family, whether big or small. We'll explore how transitions affect our children, partners, and overall family dynamics, and share strategies for maintaining balance during times of uncertainty. In this interactive session, participants will also have the opportunity to exchange personal experiences and solutions, helping families adapt and thrive through life's changes.

DON'T FORGET YOUR SOCIAL LIFE!

Juggling the demands of work and home can be overwhelming, often leaving little room for self-care, hobbies, or social activities. This seminar is designed for those who feel like they're always on the clock, reminding you that fun, relaxation, and personal fulfillment are just as important as your to-do list. You'll walk away with practical strategies to carve out time for the people and activities you love, while maintaining a healthier balance between your professional and personal life. It's time to recharge, reconnect, and reclaim your well-being.

ELDER CARE

In today's world, it's increasingly common for one family member to shoulder the responsibility of caring for an elderly relative. This seminar offers practical guidance on creating a more collaborative, family-centered approach to caregiving. We'll explore how family dynamics and past relationships can influence the ability to work together effectively and provide strategies for managing sibling relationships, resolving conflicts, and fostering cooperation among family members. Join us to learn how to share caregiving responsibilities and build stronger, more supportive family connections.

FAMILY & FRIEND GUIDE TO PTS

Post Traumatic Stress (PTS) can be challenging for family and friends who want to support their loved ones but may not fully understand its impact. This training provides a foundational overview of PTS, including the effects it can have on individuals and the warning signs to look for. Participants will gain insights into how to offer meaningful support, manage the emotional complexities of PTS, and navigate challenging situations that can arise. Join us to learn compassionate strategies for helping your loved ones live with PTS and create a more understanding, supportive environment.

FATHERHOOD: A DAY IN LIFE

The long-term impact of an engaged and loving father is profound, as supported by extensive research and data. In this interactive seminar, we'll explore the changes fatherhood brings to daily routines, and discuss how to balance personal, professional, and family commitments. You'll learn practical strategies for establishing routines that support both your child's development and your family's unique needs. Participants will leave with valuable resources to help prepare for the rewarding journey of fatherhood, equipped to embrace both the joys and challenges that come with it.

FRIENDS AND FAMILY: OUR FOUNDATION IN LIFE

This engaging session explores the essential role that friends and family play in shaping our emotional, mental, and physical well-being. Participants will uncover the profound benefits of strong social connections, identify common barriers to maintaining these relationships, and discover practical solutions to nurture them. Through reflection and interactive activities, the session empowers participants to prioritize and strengthen their relationships, leading to a more balanced, fulfilling life.

GRIEF, DYING AND DEATH

Talking about grief and loss can be one of life's most difficult conversations, but it's also one of the most important. In this thoughtful and compassionate seminar, we create a safe space to discuss the emotions, challenges, and healing process that come with losing a loved one. Whether you are experiencing grief for the first time or have walked this path before, this interactive session offers a chance to share personal stories, learn about healthy coping mechanisms, and access valuable resources to support your journey toward healing. Together, we'll explore how to navigate grief with openness, understanding, and resilience.

HANDLING A FAMILY CRISIS

This class is designed to help managers navigate the complexities of supporting employees during a family crisis. Participants will learn how to manage expectations, handle emotional exchanges, and engage in sensitive conversations with empathy and professionalism. The session will also provide practical coping mechanisms for employees facing personal transitions, as well as guidance on addressing potential financial challenges. Join us to gain the tools needed to support your team through difficult times, fostering resilience and understanding in the workplace.

HELPING OUR CHILDREN ACHIEVE THEIR DREAMS

In this seminar, participants will learn how to empower children with the tools they need to turn their dreams into reality. We'll focus on the importance of creating a supportive, non-judgmental environment where children feel confident to pursue their passions. This session will guide parents in transitioning from caregivers to coaches, providing practical strategies to help their children set and achieve their goals. Join us to discover how you can help your child take meaningful steps toward a brighter future.

HELPING TROUBLED TEENS

This seminar provides parents with the tools and resources needed to support a teenager struggling with mental health challenges. Participants will learn how to recognize the signs and symptoms of mental illness, understand when it's time to seek professional help, and navigate the complexities of supporting a teen in distress. Additionally, we'll review the warning signs of addiction and offer immediate steps parents can take to get help for their child. This session also emphasizes self-care for parents, offering resources to maintain your own well-being during this difficult journey.

IS HIGH SCHOOL ENOUGH? THE NEW AGE

In today's world, many believe that a college degree is the key to securing a high-paying career and achieving a middle-class lifestyle. But is it the only path to success? In this seminar, we'll explore the valuable life skills and opportunities that college provides, while also evaluating whether the financial investment is worth the return. Participants will discuss their hopes for their children's futures, gain insights into alternative career paths, and receive actionable resources to start planning for college costs early. Together, we'll create strategies to reach your savings goals and set your children on the path to success—whether through college or other promising avenues.

KEEPING YOUR AGING LOVED ONES SAFE

To ensure that seniors and caregivers can enjoy life to the fullest, it's essential to stay informed about basic safety practices. This seminar will cover six key areas of safety protocols designed to help seniors and caregivers maintain their health and well-being as they age. Participants will gain practical tips and resources to apply immediately in their daily lives. The program is available in two parts (three areas each) or as a single comprehensive session, offering flexibility for different learning preferences.

MANAGING FEAR AND ANXIETY IN CHILDREN

Helping children navigate fear and anxiety can feel overwhelming, but with the right tools, parents can offer the support their kids need to thrive. In this presentation, we'll explore practical strategies to help children of all ages manage their fears and anxieties. Parents will gain insight into how their own emotions can influence their children and learn how to create a supportive environment where a child's unique fears are acknowledged and addressed. Join us to discover compassionate, structured, and flexible approaches that will leave you better equipped to guide your child through life's challenges with confidence.

MANAGING THE HOLIDAY SEASON

While the holiday season can be filled with celebrations and family gatherings, it can also bring stress, sadness, and overwhelm for many. In this seminar, we'll explore common sources of holiday stress and provide practical strategies for managing your emotions, time, relationships, and finances. You'll also gain tips for staying organized, handling holiday demands, and reflecting on the role of traditions in your life. Join us to discover how to strike a balance and find more peace and joy during the holiday season.

NAVIGATING DECISIONS AS A FAMILY

Family decisions can be complex, especially when they have a lasting impact on loved ones. In this interactive seminar, we'll dive into the challenges of making important family choices, from addressing concerns to minimizing potential negative effects. Participants will explore how to have meaningful conversations, build a strong support network, and empower their children to share their thoughts and feelings during times of transition. Join us to gain the tools and confidence needed to navigate family decisions with compassion, communication, and collaboration.

PROLONGED GRIEF

The trauma of the pandemic has reshaped how we experience and process grief, with prolonged grief now officially recognized in the DSM-V. In this interactive session, participants will explore the definition of prolonged grief, its cognitive, emotional, and physical effects, and best practices for coping. You'll gain valuable insights into treatment options and resources to help support yourself and loved ones through these challenging times. Join us to better understand this complex form of grief and learn strategies to promote healing and resilience.

RAISING DIVERSITY IN YOUR HOME

It is essential for parents and caregivers to teach children the value of diversity in today's world. In this interactive session, participants will share their own cultural traditions, explore the impact of stereotypes, and discuss how their unique experiences shape their interactions with others. Together, we'll learn how to foster a spirit of inclusiveness in our children, empowering them to respect and celebrate the cultures of all communities. Participants will leave with practical strategies and resources to raise children who embrace diversity and create positive change in the world.

RELATIONSHIPS

Building and maintaining healthy relationships requires attention and emotional tools to keep those bonds strong. In this interactive and engaging class, participants will explore common misconceptions about relationships, the true meaning of fulfillment, the importance of communication, and what happiness really means in a relationship. Through lively discussions and practical exercises, we'll dive into the key ingredients for successful relationships and create personalized action plans to strengthen our connections while identifying areas for growth. Join us to enrich your relationships and foster lasting bonds with friends and family.

SCREEN GUIDE

In today's digital world, many parents struggle with deciding when and how much screen time is appropriate for their children. In this interactive session, participants will explore age-appropriate apps and websites and learn how to set limits with clear expectations and guidelines. We'll also discuss the importance of having open conversations with children about why these boundaries are necessary and how to approach situations where bending the rules may be the right choice. Parents will leave equipped with the tools and resources to navigate screen time challenges while fostering healthy habits.

STEPFAMILIES

Modern families come in all shapes and sizes, influencing how we see the world and interact with one another. The care and support that family members provide are crucial for the healthy development of children, especially when stepfamilies are formed. In this session, participants will explore the joys and challenges of stepfamilies, focusing on building shared values, offering firm and fair discipline, and finding ways to enjoy quality time together, regardless of family composition. Join us to discover practical strategies for creating harmony and connection within your blended family.

SURVIVING AND THRIVING THROUGH DIVORCE

Divorce impacts more than just the couple—it affects children, relatives, and friends, reshaping the dynamics of everyone involved. This seminar provides practical guidance for anyone navigating the stages of divorce or separation. Participants will gain a clear understanding of the divorce process, the differences between litigation and mediation, and learn coping strategies to manage the emotional toll. Join this supportive session to gain the tools to heal, support your loved ones, and confidently move forward into the next chapter of life.

TEEN SUICIDE PREVENTION

The popular Netflix series "13 Reasons Why" has sparked important conversations about suicide, but it also raises significant concerns within the mental health community. This seminar dives into the critical issues portrayed in the series, including the romanticization of suicide, the absence of responsible adult guidance, and the risks it poses to vulnerable teens. We'll explore the impact of media on youth mental health, how to recognize the warning signs of depression, and the dangers of copy-cat behaviors. Join us for an essential discussion on supporting teens through open dialogue, education, and prevention strategies to help save lives.

THE SANDWICH GENERATION

Caught between caring for aging parents and managing their own careers and families, the "Sandwich Generation" faces unique challenges. This seminar is designed to provide practical strategies and support for family caregivers who are juggling multiple responsibilities. Participants will learn how to gather essential information, communicate effectively with family members, and proactively plan for their loved ones' care, helping them remain safe and comfortable in their homes. Join us for an insightful discussion on balancing caregiving with life's other demands, while advocating for your loved ones and yourself.

TODAY'S FAMILY: CHALLENGES AND CHANGES

No matter the family dynamic, all families face common challenges. In this course, parents will explore the evolution of family structures across different cultures and throughout history. Through interactive discussions, participants will gain valuable insights and best practices to strengthen family connections and foster engagement. You'll leave with practical ideas for family-friendly activities that everyone can enjoy, helping to build stronger bonds and lasting relationships within your family.

In this session, participants will gain a clear understanding of advance directives, ensuring that future wishes are respected. We'll define advance directives, explore the benefits of having them in place, and learn about living wills and durable powers of attorney for healthcare. Participants will leave equipped with strategies to communicate with older relatives about the importance of creating advance directives and resources to help ensure these critical documents are established before it's too late. Join us to gain peace of mind and prepare for the future with confidence.

ADVANCED TOOLS AND TECHNIQUES FOR THE FULLY FUNDED 401(K)

This class will guide participants on how to effectively manage their 401(k) holdings to minimize future taxes, expand their financial legacy, and coordinate with IRAs. We'll explore tax advantages such as the NUA technique, stock options in company plans, and the applicability of Roth IRAs for income planning. Additionally, we'll cover opportunities like 'in-service' withdrawals and other investment tools to manage risk as you approach retirement. Join this interactive session to ensure you are making informed financial decisions that benefit both your retirement and your loved ones.

BASIC BANKING AND BANKING TIP

In this class, participants will explore the various aspects of banking, from products and services to procedures, and their impact on managing your finances. You'll learn how banks contribute to the creation of money supply, the significance of maintaining a healthy cost-to-income ratio, and essential accounting concepts like assets, liabilities, debits, and credits. Additionally, we'll cover how to balance multiple accounts and understand the differences between mutual funds and CDs. Join us to gain the knowledge and tools to take control of your financial future.

BUILDING GOOD CREDIT AND IMPROVING YOUR CREDIT SCORE

In this seminar, participants will explore the significant impact of consumer debt on both society and individuals today. You'll learn the importance of maintaining a good credit score and discover practical steps to improve your score, even if it's not where you want it to be. We'll also break down how the FICO system works, giving you the knowledge to understand how your financial decisions affect your credit score. Join us to gain the tools you need to start improving your credit and securing a stronger financial future.

CAR BUYING: NEW OR USED, BUY OR LEASE?

Deciding whether to purchase a new car or lease a used one for the first time can be a complex financial decision. In this seminar, participants will learn how to navigate the vehicle leasing and buying market, weighing the short- and long-term impacts on their budget. You'll leave the session equipped with valuable resources and insights to make the best decision based on your personal financial situation and driving needs. Join us to gain confidence in your next vehicle purchase or lease decision.

COLLEGE TUITION: UNDERSTANDING FINANCIAL AID

Navigating the college financial aid process can feel overwhelming, but it may make even high-tuition schools more affordable than you think. In this seminar, parents will gain a clear understanding of financial aid, an umbrella term that includes grants, loans, and other forms of assistance to help cover tuition costs. Participants will learn how to apply for financial aid and, most importantly, how to interpret financial aid packages in the context of their own financial situation and their child's educational future. Join us to make informed decisions and unlock the potential for financial support.

ELDERCARE - FINANCIAL PLANNING

Many older relatives today depend on financial support from their families. In this seminar, participants will take part in a budgeting workshop that integrates Social Security and Medicare, while also considering the personal wants and needs of their loved ones. We'll discuss how to identify signs that an elderly relative may need additional financial assistance and explore strategies to protect them from common scams targeting seniors. Join us to gain the knowledge and resources needed to provide financial support while safeguarding your loved ones.

ESTATE PLANNING

Webinar Only

Estate planning is a crucial step in ensuring your family's financial well-being. In this seminar, participants will receive an overview of the essential documentation needed for estate planning, including wills, guardianships, and trusts. We'll break down key terms and explore the benefits and potential consequences of different estate planning options. Please note, this seminar is for informational purposes only and is not intended to provide legal advice. Join us to gain a clearer understanding of how to protect your family's financial future.

ESTATE PLANNING - RAMIFICATIONS OF YOUR EMPLOYEE BENEFITS PACKAGE

Webinar Only

As employees near retirement, understanding how their earned benefits will impact their financial future is essential. In this class, we'll discuss key topics such as group life insurance, pensions, long-term care, deferred compensation, income with respect to a decedent (IRD), and even frequent flyer miles. Participants will learn about the tax and planning implications of these benefits for themselves and their families. We'll also cover lost opportunities, such as net unrealized appreciation (NUA) to reduce taxes on company stock, the use of trusts, and the differences between IRAs and 401(k)s when facing death or disability. Join us to ensure you are prepared to make the most of your post-employment benefits.

Small financial decisions can have a significant effect on both your immediate and future financial well-being. In this seminar, participants will learn how to effectively manage unexpected financial challenges and address ongoing cash flow and debt issues that contribute to daily stress and impulsive decisions. We'll explore the personal and family consequences of financial inaction while providing practical strategies and resources to promote fiscal responsibility and financial wellness in your everyday life. Join us to take control of your financial future with confidence.

FINANCIAL PLANNING FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

With the cost of higher education reaching unprecedented levels, attending college can feel out of reach for many. In this session, participants will learn how to navigate the true cost of college, plan ahead, and start saving now. We'll explore the potential savings of different types of colleges and cover a range of options to help finance higher education, including 529 savings plans, loans, scholarships, and various forms of financial aid. Join us to gain practical insights and strategies to make college more affordable for you or your dependents.

FINANCIAL WELLNESS AND MOVING FORWARD

Participants in this class will reflect on the unparalleled impact the year 2020 had on our world, and what we can collectively learn to move forward in a positive direction. Together, we will explore the steps we can take to improve our finances, health, and interpersonal relationships, and learn how these three areas are interrelated. Participants will leave this class equipped to improve their future prospects through the application of best practices and resources provided.

HANDLING FINANCIAL STRESS

With inflation driving up the cost of living, a significant percentage of Americans—many even with six-figure incomes—are living paycheck to paycheck. In this course, participants will learn concrete steps to stabilize and support their income, control spending, and plan for financial emergencies. We'll share best practices for maximizing earning and saving opportunities, providing practical strategies you can apply to your own financial circumstances during these challenging times. Join us to gain the tools you need to take control of your finances and build a more secure future.

HOLIDAY BUDGETING

The holiday season brings joy and celebration, but it can also lead to financial stress when you review your spending in the new year. In this class, participants will learn how to prevent post-holiday sticker shock by keeping holiday spending in check. We'll explore best practices for enjoying the season without overindulging and discuss strategies to make thoughtful financial decisions that won't lead to regret. Join us to ensure your holidays are both joyful and financially responsible.

HOME BUYING: THE BEST INVESTMENT

In 2024's evolving economy, purchasing a home can still be a valuable long-term investment, but it requires careful planning. This seminar will guide participants through the home-buying process, highlighting key factors to consider in light of today's market conditions, such as rising mortgage rates and home price trends. We'll review important terminology and provide resources to help you make an informed decision that fits your financial goals. Join us to gain knowledge and confidence to navigate the complexities of buying a home in today's economic climate.

HOW FINANCIAL STRESS AFFECTS THE WORKPLACE

The financial stress of the past few years continues to weigh heavily in our ever-changing economy. The long-lasting effects of the pandemic have impacted many areas of our lives, including how we perform at work. In this class, participants will identify key financial stressors and learn how to take control of their financial well-being. By focusing on practical strategies, you can improve both your financial health and your overall workplace experience. Join us to explore ways to regain financial control and reduce stress in both your personal and professional life.

IDENTITY THEFT PROTECTION AND SELF-HELP

Identity theft has become an unfortunate reality for many Americans. In this class, participants will explore the most common types of identity theft, how and where it occurs, key warning signs to watch for, and effective ways to prevent it. By the end of the session, attendees will walk away with a comprehensive checklist of resources, preventative strategies, and clear action steps to take if they become victims of identity theft. Join us to safeguard your personal information and protect your financial future.

IMPORTANCE OF HAVING A WILL

Ensuring that your hard-earned money and assets are distributed according to your wishes after your death is crucial. In this class, participants will gain a clear understanding of the importance of having a will, along with key estate planning terminology and alternative options. You'll learn how to weigh the pros and cons of various estate planning strategies, leaving prepared to take actionable steps to protect your legacy.
